

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Mel & Enid Zuckerman
College of Public Health

The Division of Epidemiology and Biostatistics Presents:
Roberto Cláudio Rodrigues Bezerra, PhD, MPH

“Public Health Systems in a Major Brazilian Urban Center”

Friday, June 5, 2015
11:30 AM-12:30 PM
Drachman Hall, Room A114

Roberto Cláudio Rodrigues Bezerra, PhD, MPH
Mayor of Fortaleza, Brazil

Dr. Roberto Cláudio Rodrigues Bezerra is the Mayor of Fortaleza, Brazil. He was elected President of the Legislative Assembly and served between 2011-2013. Prior to his service in the Legislative Assembly, Dr. Cláudio served as State Representative in 2006 and 2010.

Dr. Cláudio is a medical health officer with the Federal University of Ceará (UFC). As a public health professional, his focus is planning and evaluation of public health policies, including the ‘Family Health Program,’ a Brazilian federal health program. He received his master’s and doctoral degrees in Public Health from the University of Arizona.

For more information, please contact Laura Shriver at shriverl@email.arizona.edu, (520) 626-7914.