PAST UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP & FACULTY EXPERIENCE

- 12/2015 to 9/2018     Assistant Dean, Health and Education Policy
College of Nursing and Health Innovation, *Arizona State University
- Develop policy fellowships and internship training seminars designed to help connect recent graduates and newly licensed professionals to the public policy process.
  - Co-teach courses in health policy as faculty member, working to connect students and faculty to the public policy process. Collaborated with multiple faculty members to provide opportunities for students to do special projects and research in health policy.
- 01/2011 to 9/2018     Clinical Associate Professor with full-time teaching & service responsibilities
Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College, Arizona State University
- Proposed, authored and teach two undergraduate courses designed for education majors and others looking to work in public policy. Prepare informed and effective education policy advocates. Teach students to formulate individual rather than pre-determined positions, and how to provide a research-based defense of their positions.
  - Based on self-designed courses, will be applying for multiple General Studies designations via university curriculum process.
  - Teach courses in computer literacy/mobile technologies as an education technology group member working to build courses aligned with student needs. Collaborated on finding decreased enrollment cause and solution, and provided online instructional design direction to help instructors optimally handle large numbers of students. All courses are 100% online, asynchronous.
- 04/2008 to 01/2011     Director, Education Downtown, College of Teacher Education and Leadership (CTEL)
Director, CTEL/Teach For America Partnership (TFA)
Clinical Associate Professor with Administrative Appointment
Arizona State University
- Established Education Downtown for CTEL, which brought teacher preparation and certification programs to ASU’s downtown campus. Oversaw downtown campus budget and faculty administration, and built collaboration among the ADE, non-profits, school districts, and businesses to identify and meet teacher preparation needs in the Phoenix Metro area. Joined faculty and administrators from multiple ASU colleges, under the guidance of Director of Teacher Preparation, Dr. Mari Koerner, to coordinate teacher preparation program offerings for graduate and undergraduate students and streamline Arizona State teaching certification process.
  - Supervised Service Learning program and program leader, ensuring integration of the learning experience with viable community service opportunities.
  - Directed Induction, Master’s and Certification program for the TFA partnership in CTEL. Expanded external partnerships with Phoenix Teaching Fellows and other district-based alternative certification/intern programs, and worked with the Office of University Initiatives to transition the entire ASU/TFA partnership to CTEL.
  - Facilitated enrollment management, working with Admissions & Enrollment under guidance of the dean to promote on/off-campus marketing and recruiting activities.
  - Collaborated with Dr. Scott Ridley, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College Associate Dean and principal investigator (PI) of more than $110M in federal grants supporting district-based teacher and principal preparation programs, and Arizona urban and rural school reform initiatives. Coordinated all grant-related technology and community engagement activities, and co-edited two large grants, and annual and quarterly reports to federal government.

01/ 2007 to 04/ 2008 Director, CTET’s Teach for America Partnership
Clinical Assistant Professor with Administrative Appointment
Arizona State University

- Established the Induction, Master’s and Certification program for the TFA partnership in CTET, which included coordinating the hire of lecturers and faculty associates; coordinating and scheduling classes; developing tailored curriculum using innovative technology components; serving as contact between CTET and TFA; and overseeing professional development of faculty teaching in the Master’s program.
- Managed enrollment of 180 first-time graduate students, facilitating state licensure.

08/2003 to 12/2006 Lecturer
Arizona State University

- Taught four sections of classes each semester at graduate and undergraduate levels, including face-to-face and hybrid with consistently high student reviews.
- Led first team to transition into online and face-to-face hybrid method of instruction, and taught other faculty how to implement hybrid methodology.
- Served as faculty representative on the Dean’s Technology Advisory Committee, and on the ADE Alternative Path to Certification Committee.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am a four-term Arizona State Representative currently running for State Senate District 15, and Assistant Professor of Practice in the Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health at The University of Arizona and Associate Director of the Arizona Center for Rural Health.

Previously, I was an Associate Clinical Professor at Arizona State University teaching classes in the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College and Assistant Dean in the College of Nursing and Health Innovation creating executive education courses for health professionals related to health policy.

With a unique experience that spans legislative, academic and health care worlds, I am committed to expanding my academic career to include research and service in the area of applied health policy, helping to connect students and faculty to the legislative process. I support innovative and critical thought, collaborating across diverse groups and representations to identify and deliver optimal solutions.

Dedicated to health, health care, and the human condition, I established the Health Policy Academy in the College of Nursing and Health Innovation. As House of Representatives Health Committee Chairwoman, I strove to ensure innovation efficiency and effectiveness in the Arizona State health care system. I work with non-profits to assist in their efforts to more effectively advocate for vulnerable populations, including partnering with Native American tribes, and rural healthcare advocates serving vulnerable populations.

As Vice-Chair of the Education Finance Committee I have worked to reduce government regulations and unfunded mandates in order to support schools in their primary purpose. Education is a top priority, and I have always used my service on boards, commissions and foundations to mentor students while influencing the private and public decision-making process in favor of the students.

An effective fundraiser, grant writer and advocate of non-profit organizations, I am passionate about matching needs to solutions, forming diverse partnerships to uniquely solve community and public health challenges, while raising up the next generation of leaders to make the long-term difference.
