EXPLORE RESOURCES FOR NEW STUDENTS

A great deal of information has been compiled into a New Student Guide to give you the tools you need to successfully transition to graduate school as well as to answer questions we frequently hear from students.

The UA Parking and Transportation Services offers a number of parking options, including parking lots, garages, park and ride programs, and carpooling. Click here for parking and pricing information.

- Register your bike with UAPD
- Take the Cat Tran, a free on-campus shuttle service
- Public transportation available through SunTran and SunLink Streetcar

FIND HOUSING

Tucson has a lot of great, affordable housing. We suggest having your housing secured two months prior to orientation.

- La Aldea \(on-campus graduate housing\)
- UA Off-Campus Housing
- Craigslist
- Zillow

PURCHASE HEALTH INSURANCE

The University of Arizona offers one major health insurance policy designed specifically for eligible University of Arizona students and their dependents.

International Students: The University of Arizona requires that all international students carry the Student Health Insurance unless you qualify for an exemption. Exemptions must be requested each semester.

GET STARTED WITH ORIENTATION

- Participate in online orientation, which will be available in early August.
- RSVP for on campus orientation. Instructions will be sent over the summer.
- Items to bring: driver's license and social security card
- International students: bring I-20 paperwork, Visa, and MMR immunization records

PAY FOR TUITION AND FEES

Login to UAccess Student Center to pay your tuition and fees by the first day of classes.

View the Bursar's Office tuition calculator.

After You Arrive

GET YOUR CATCARD

Visit the CatCard office located on main campus on the lower level of the Student Union to have your picture taken and pick up your student ID card. Make sure to bring a government or state issued photograph identification as well as your student ID number. There is a $25 charge for your CatCard. Phoenix-based MPH students will have their CatCard photos taken at orientation

PREPARE FOR CLASSES

- Purchase/rent textbooks from the UAHS Bookstore, Amazon, and Chegg
- Check CatMail regularly for important emails
- Check D2L

ATTEND ORIENTATIONS
