

Business Administration:

The MPH/MBA Dual Degree Program is offered in partnership by the University of Arizona Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health and the Eller College of Management. The MPH/MBA dual degree program allows students to earn a Master of Public Health (MPH) and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree aimed to provide leadership and management training for the health services industry at the local, national and international levels.

This dual degree program offers students the opportunity for interdisciplinary study by allowing them to customize their dual degree by selecting one of eight MPH concentration areas which offer comprehensive knowledge and competencies in the public health sciences (health behavior and health promotion, family and child health, public health policy and management, health services administration, biostatistics, epidemiology, environmental health sciences, one health) and state-of-the-art business practices (finance, accounting and marketing combined with strategic thinking, entrepreneurship and value-based management). The program prepares graduates to transfer strategic thinking, scientific know-how and leadership and managerial skills to rapidly changing environments and global health challenges in the 21st century. Graduates are prepared for work in health industry leadership positions, including health care marketing, healthcare consulting, hospital administration, managed care, biotechnology, healthcare related non-profit work or positions in academia.

Students in the MPH/MBA dual degree program complete the separate requirements for the MPH and MBA degrees in three years upon the completion of a minimum of 78-87 units in Public Health and Business Administration. The program is open only to full-time students. The preferred sequence of courses is for dual degree students to start full time in the Eller College of Management for the first year, then complete the first year of the Master of Public Health program during the second year of studies, then courses from both programs simultaneously in the third year. Following completion of the first year of study of each program, a student may take both MPH and MBA courses simultaneously, to complete both degrees. Students will have to work with their advisors to determine how they can coordinate their class schedules to meet both degree requirements. This will vary by the student's concentration area of study within the MPH Program. The concentrations most easily coordinated with the MBA are Public Health Policy and Management, Health Behavior Health Promotion, and Biostatistics. All MPH and most MBA concentrations are possible though.
