MPH in Public Health Practice Program Level Competencies

• Apply accepted financial concepts to analyze the fiscal status of public health, health care and non-profit organizations.

• Identify appropriate strategies to promote positive health behavior changes in various populations; and analyze and discourse on public health issues.

• Analyze and evaluate administrative, management and regulatory issues that impact the delivery of medical care in the U.S.

• Compare the strengths and weakness of organizational structures within local governmental, non-profit and community entities.

• Design and submit a proposal for a small-scale population-based intervention with a limited budget that addresses global health issue.